

What could be better than a book about a Rebel legend by an Oxford legend? Nothing! Well, except a SIGNED book! Ultra-rare. $40.00

Memoir of the man who protected Jevan Snead's blind side. Seems like just yesterday. Sigh. Autographed! $30.00

"This book tells the rousing story of University of Mississippi football—from the first time Oxford embraced a visiting team in 1893 through the Rebels' dramatic finishing flourish in 1975." Still one of the best histories of Ole Miss football...and in great shape, to boot. $10.00

Novel by one of the great American writers (and Ole Miss professor and Oxonian), Barry Hannah. This SIGNED copy will awe and astonish guests with your GREAT taste. Rare. $50.00.

One of the many perks of being a public library in Oxford, Mississippi is that we have a ton of novels signed by John Grisham. This is one—there are others. Stop by to check out the selection. We might have them all! $30.00
